

The Great Vigil of Easter – The First Service of Easter Saturday, April 11 at 8pm

THE SERVICE OF LIGHT

The service begins outside in the darkness of night as the faithful gather in silence. In kindling new fire and lighting the paschal candle, we are reminded that Christ came as a light shining in darkness (John 1:5). Using fire, candles, words, movement, and music the worshipping community becomes the pilgrim people of God following the “pillar of fire” given to us in Jesus Christ, the light of the world.

GREETING AND INTRODUCTION

THE LIGHTING AND THE BLESSING OF THE PASCHAL CANDLE

PROCESSION INTO THE CHURCH AND THE LIGHTING OF CANDLES

Light a candle at home and at the end of the Exsultet you may extinguish your candle.

THE EXSULTET: The Easter Proclamation—A fifth-century hymn

Madison Borys, Cantor

Rejoice now, heavenly host and choirs of angels,
And let your trumpets shout salvation
For the victory of our mighty King.

Rejoice and sing now, all the round earth,
Bright with a glorious splendor,
For darkness has been vanquished by our eternal King.

Rejoice and be glad now, Mother Church,
And let your holy courts in radiant light
re-sound with the praises of your people.

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right and good, always and everywhere,
With our whole heart and mind and voice to praise you,
The invisible, almighty and eternal God,
And your only begotten Son, Jesus Christ our Lord;

For he is the true Paschal Lamb,
Who at the feast of the Passover
Paid for us the debt of Adam's sin,
And by his blood delivered your faithful people.

This is the night, when you brought our fathers,
The children of Israel, out of bondage in Egypt,
And led them through the Red Sea on dry land.

This is the night, when all who believe in Christ
Are delivered from the gloom of sin,
And are restored to grace and holiness of life.

This is the night, when Christ broke the bonds of death and hell,
And rose victorious from the grave.

Holy Father, accept our evening sacrifice,
The offering of this candle in your honor.
May it shine continually to drive away all darkness.

May Christ, the Morning Star who knows no setting,
Find it ever burning:
He who gives his light to all creation,
And who lives and reigns for ever and ever.
Amen.

THE SERVICE OF READINGS

The second part of the vigil consists of a series of readings from the Old and New Testaments. These lessons provide a panoramic view of what God has done for humanity. The readings thus retell our "holy history" as God's children, summarizing the faith into which we are baptized.

“Joy in the Morning”

There'll be joy in the morning on that day,
there'll be joy in the morning on that day,
for the daylight will dawn when the darkness is gone,
there'll be joy in the morning on that day.

There'll be peace and contentment evermore,
there'll be peace and contentment evermore,
ev'ry heart, ev'ry voice on that day will rejoice,
there'll be peace and contentment evermore.

There'll be love and forgiveness ev'rywhere,
there'll be love and forgiveness ev'rywhere,
and the way of the Lord will that day be restored,
there'll be love and forgiveness ev'rywhere.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

The image of water giving life – nurturing crops, sustaining life, and cleansing our bodies – cannot be missed in this part of the vigil. Nor is the ability of water to inflict death in drowning overlooked. Water brings both life and death. So also, there is death and life in Baptism, for in Baptism we die to sin and are raised to life. Baptism unites believers to Christ’s death and resurrection.

*PROFESSION OF FAITH

The Apostle’s Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

RENEWAL OF THE PROMISES MADE AT BAPTISM

RESPONSE: I will, with God’s help.

*THE PEACE

Leader: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

Leader: In keeping with the guidelines of social distance, let us greet one another with a sign of peace.

THE SERVICE OF THE EUCHARIST

The vigil climaxes in a celebration of the feast of the people of God. The risen Lord invites all to participate in the new life he brings by sharing the feast which he has prepared. We thus look forward to the great Messianic feast of the kingdom of God when the redeemed from every time and place “will come from east and west, and from north and south, and sit at table in the kingdom of God” (Luke 13.29). The vigil thus celebrates what God has done, is doing, and will do.

THE PEALING OF THE BELLS
DECORATING OF THE SANCTUARY FOR EASTER SUNDAY

BREAKING THE FAST

*In the early Church, Christians gathered on the afternoon of Holy Saturday to pray and to confer the Sacrament of Baptism on catechumens—converts to Christianity who had spent Lent preparing to be received into the Church. This vigil lasted through the night until dawn on Easter Sunday, when the Alleluia was sung for the first time since the beginning of Lent, and the faithful—including the newly baptized—broke their 40-hour fast by receiving Communion.
Perhaps now is a good time to enjoy a special snack with your family.*
