Luke 4:18,19

The diagram illustrates the mission of the Holy Spirit in a vertical flow. At the top, a small black rectangle connects to a large white oval containing the text 'God Jesus'. Below this oval is a black rectangle with diagonal white stripes, containing the text 'Holy Spirit' in white. This is followed by a second large white oval containing 'The Apostles' and 'John 20:21'. To the left and right of this oval are thick black horizontal bars. Below the second oval is another black rectangle with diagonal white stripes, also containing 'Holy Spirit' in white. This leads to a third large white oval containing 'Human Need' and 'Luke 4:18,19'. At the bottom, a thick black vertical bar connects to a white rectangular box with a black border, containing the text 'After the Crucifixion and Ascension'. Thick black horizontal bars extend from the left and right sides of this bottom box.

“Badness”
is goodness
damned up

What does it mean to see ourselves
here?
What does it mean for the purpose of the church?
