DEACONS FALL/WINTER COAT & SWEATER DRIVE

With the days getting cooler, to benefit our friends at St. John's Soup Kitchen, the Deacons are sponsoring a fall/winter coat and sweater drive. We will be collecting clean, gently used coats, sweaters and sweatshirts, men's pants, adult shoes and backpacks and overnight bags beginning Saturday, September 30th through Saturday, October 14th. For your convenience, during this two week period a drop off bin for donations will be accessible 24/7 outside by the church circle. As always, the Deacons and St. John's appreciate your continued support. Should you have any questions, please contact us at fpc@firstprescaldwell.org.

A MISSION & MINISTRY FAIR THANK YOU

Thank you to everyone that came out on a very rainy Sunday to checkout our Mission and Ministry Fair and helped to make it a big success. Kudos to all our Session, Mission, Deacon and various committees that participated and provided the congregation with some creative table displays and valuable information about what's going on and how to get involved here at First Pres Caldwell.

With Gratitude,
Ellen Johnson

INQUIRER'S GATHERING

Do you want to find out more about the Presbyterian Church? Are you interested in moving from attender to member? Are there questions you have about what we believe, or how we operate? Join us on Sunday, Oct. 22 from 2:00-4:00pm at the church. All are welcome – attender or member – who have questions. And don't worry, if this doesn't fit your schedule, there will be other opportunities as we seek to find times for all who are interested.

THE SAINTS OF OUR LIVES

In the New Testament, “saint” is used to identify all members of Christian churches. Paul often addressed his letters to “All the saints at _____”

In this sense we are all saints. However, we all have people of faith who have had special impact on our lives because of their example and way of living. We want to honor those who have been such saints to you. They can be living or deceased, family friends or even strangers whose example has inspired you.

Those at the 9:30 service can use note cards in the pew racks to record a sit or saints in your life. You can place these in the offering plates at the rear of the sanctuary or at the door on the piano side of the sanctuary. Those at the contemporary service can fill out a card at the welcome table and leave it in the offering plate there. You can also leave word at the office, 973-228-0310 or office@firstprescaldwell.org. The collected names will be listed and honored during communion on Nov. 5, which is the Sunday following All Saints Day.

This is in addition to our church's tradition of specifically honoring members and close friends of the church who were lost during the past year. Those names will be read separately and accompanied by the ringing of a bell as has been done before.

FACING RACISM TASK FORCE'S DISCUSSION SERIES: “Listening, Learning, and Moving Forward!”

The Presbyterian Church USA's website states: “Racism is the opposite of what God intends for humanity. It is the rejection of the other, which is entirely contrary to the Word of God incarnate in Jesus Christ.” With that in mind, please join First Presbyterian Church at Caldwell's Facing Racism Task Force this fall as we, guided by the ministry of Jesus Christ, continue to try to unpack the topic of racism. Listening,

Learning, and Moving Forward! will be a three part discussion series via Zoom this fall. In each meeting, we will discuss three short videos that we ask you to watch before the meeting. The information and perspectives presented in the videos will give us many different possibilities for discussion. Several potential discussion questions will be provided for each session but do not hesitate to add your own. Feel free to attend even if you have never previously attended one of FRTF's discussion series, and, if you can only attend one or two of the events in this series, that is fine too. We love new voices and perspectives and just want you to join the discussion. The dates for this 3-part Monday evening series are Oct. 16, Nov. 13, and Dec. 11. Each meeting will meet via Zoom from 7:30-8:45 pm. We know you are busy and we will try to keep to schedule! The videos for our first meeting are listed below.

Please RSVP for the first meeting by the morning of Oct. 16th to facingracismfirstpres@gmail.com. You will be sent the meeting's agenda and Zoom link. Finally, we want to thank the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church's Courageous Conversations curriculum for their list of resources which inspired much of this series!

Please find links to the videos on our website at www.firstprescaldwell.org.

ADA DREAM CHRISTMAS

Dear First Pres Members,

The children at African Dream Academy in Monrovia, Liberia live without electricity and running water. Their parents often can't provide them with enough food let alone holiday gifts. Some of you have taken or will take a red bag at the back of the church or from the Christian Ed desk and like to shop with your children to fill it with goodies meant for that particular child. Please include a composition book, pens and pencils. Other Suggestions: a toothbrush and toothpaste, soap, Band aids, pair of socks, hard candy, paper, markers, crayons, glue, tape, other art supplies, sunglasses, a ball, an age-appropriate paperback book, a flashlight, toys for younger children (little cars, little dolls, etc.), toiletries for older girls, headbands, barrettes, jewelry, lip gloss. Enclose a note or card if you like!

Some of you don't have time to shop, so we have compiled an Amazon gift registry if you find it easier to just shop online. <https://www.amazon.com/registries/gl/guest-view/2LNL5EXNFHOY2> The bulk items will be used to fill the empty bags.

Either way, you will give the 1800 children at ADA a Dream Christmas! If you would like to contribute to shipping costs, we welcome gifts of $20 (or more.) You can send a check to African Dream Academy Foundation and drop it off at church or you can donate online: <https://www.africandreamacademy.org/donate>

On behalf of the children at ADA, we thank you for brightening their lives.

Gratefully,

Lydia Spinelli

President

African Dream Academy Foundation

OUR CHRISTIAN CALL TO GRATITUDE, GENEROSITY AND STEWARDSHIP

We invite you to read this passage from scripture and to reflect upon God's call to each of us to be grateful and generous stewards.

Proverbs 3:5-9

(Trust in the Lord with all your heart, honor God with your first fruits) Proverbs offers a lot of pithy one-liners that can be used to reflect on our call to stewardship and generosity. It is helpful to see it in the larger context as well, not only is this a call to give generously from our first fruits, it is a reminder to trust in God, follow God, and seek God's wisdom. All of these are forms of stewardship and all are deserving of our attention and reflection.
