The Deacons invite you to join us at a Blue Christmas Service of Peace and Hope on Sunday, December 17, 2023 at 5:00 PM at the FPC. In a year marked by ups and downs of anxiety, losses, and limitations, let’s share in a time of quiet and calm prayer, soft music, and candle lighting. Using the form blow, please write in the name of any person(s) or a situation you are keeping in your thoughts this holiday season. A candle will be lit for every person and/or prayer submitted. You can choose whether or not the person will be named during the service. Please feel free to add a brief message. All submissions will remain anonymous. <https://bit.ly/3REcWNj>

Facing Racism Task Force's Discussion Series: "Listening, Learning, and Moving Forward!"

We have one meeting left in the series, "Listening, Learning, And Moving Forward!" Please join us, even if you have never previously attended one of our discussion events. The Presbyterian Church USA's website states: "Racism is the opposite of what God intends for humanity. It is the rejection of the other, which is entirely contrary to the Word of God incarnate in Jesus Christ." With that in mind, join First Presbyterian Church at Caldwell's Facing Racism Task Force on Dec.11 as we, guided by the ministry of Jesus Christ, continue to try to unpack the topic of racism. We will discuss three short videos that we ask you to watch before the meeting. Several potential discussion questions will be provided but do not hesitate to add your own. We will meet via Zoom from 7:30- 8:45 pm. We know you are busy and will try to keep to the schedule! Here are the videos we will be discussing on Dec. 11:

-- Don't Lose Heart: Why It's Worth It to Fight for Racial Harmony Even When We Don't See Progress

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=g9Mv5NJkJE>

-Fifth Avenue Courageous Conversations: Jamie's Story <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jbRUMk54oI0>

-The Legacy of the Catawba Presbytery <https://www.presbyofcharlotte.org/ministry-teams/anti-racism/> (Please scroll down to find the video "The Legacy of the Catawba Presbytery")

Please RSVP for the Dec.11th meeting by the morning of Dec.11th to facingracismfirstpres@gmail.com. You will be sent the meeting's agenda and Zoom link.

Finally, we want to thank the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church's Courageous Conversations curriculum for their list of resources which inspired much of this series!!

WE ARE LOOKING FOR OFFICER CANDIDATES

Your congregational Nominating Committee is looking for candidates for election as elders and deacons at our annual meeting in January. If you know someone you consider a good candidate for either role, pass their name along to the Nominating Committee chairperson, Nancy Hauser at nehauser8@comcast.net. If you would like to be considered, then let Nancy know that. Each board, elders and deacons, meets monthly. Elders on session are also connected to a church committee, expected to attend those meetings and in some cases chair the committee. Deacons are assigned tasks to help organize or carry out tasks related to the Deacons service ministries.

THERE IS STILL TIME TO MAKE YOUR PLEDGE FOR 2024 STEWARDSHIP 2024 - BOLDLY...RESPONSIBLY...FAITHFULLY

Our Stewardship theme this year is “Boldly...Responsibly...Faithfully.” We are asked to act boldly and responsibly in faithfully stewarding our part of Christ’s body into the future. This church has witnessed great acts of caring, wonderful acts of worship, lives changed by experiencing and knowing our gracious Lord and savior. It was accomplished by Boldly, Responsibly and Faithfully using what God has given us in service to Christ. As Jesus said, more will be added to faithful witnesses. In receiving more and using it boldly, responsibly, and faithfully, we shape our church’s future.

Pledging makes it possible for First Presbyterian to discern what commitments to make for the year ahead. It provides church leadership with an understanding of the resources that can be available for those commitments. Pledging is about more than what we can do. It is also about who we are. Making a commitment and giving regularly to the church is one of the ways we express what it means to be disciples and a part of this faith community. Your pledged commitment is a financial investment in the mission and ministry of The First Presbyterian Church at Caldwell.

Pledge cards were mailed to members and friends, and are also in the pews now. You may complete and submit a pledge card by presenting it during worship today or delivering it to the church office. You may also submit your pledge online on our church website, www.firstprescaldwell.org. Finally, you may contact the church office directly at 973-228-0310.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Gracious and loving God, You call us to be stewards of

Your abundance, the caretakers of all you have entrusted to us.

Help us to always use Your gifts wisely and teach us to share them generously. Send the Holy Spirit to work through us, bringing Your message to those we serve.

SOUP KITCHEN NEWS

We hope that your Thanksgiving was full of happiness and good food. Here we are looking forward to Christmas and a new year, where does the time go? We thank all for making Thanksgiving special for our clients. They enjoyed their turkey and fixings and asking for seconds. Kudos to all who has the time to prepare a pan.

December’s schedule is out. Just a reminder to sign up and make someone’s Christmas a merry one. We have two Saturdays to prepare for so be generous and help out if you can. We could also use help serving at the soup kitchen—families, friends, congregants, and of course our youth would be a great addition to our day at the soup kitchen. Times can be tough and money not always plentiful, but we do need your help to be able to feed our clients. It’s their holiday too, and these meals mean a lot to them. Sign ups can be found at www.firstprescaldwell.org/soup-kitchen-news.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND GOD BLESS!
